

IDW Accounting Principle: Principles of Proper Accounting When Using Information Technology (IDW AcP FAIT 1)

(Status at: September 24, 2002)¹

[Translation Status: August 2004]

[Translator's notes to increase the understandability of the translated text for English readers are bounded by square brackets; items in curly brackets reflect optional items included in the original German text in square brackets.]

1.	Preliminary Remarks.....	1
2.	The IT System and the Use of IT in an Enterprise	2
3.	The Use of IT in Accounting.....	4
3.1.	Security Requirements for Accounting-relevant Data	5
3.2.	Principles of Proper Accounting.....	7
3.2.1.	General Principles.....	7
3.2.2.	Source Document Entry Function	8
3.2.3.	Journal Function.....	10
3.2.4.	Ledger Function	11
3.2.5.	Documentation	12
3.2.6.	Retention Requirements	14
4.	The Installation of an Accounting-Related IT System.....	16
4.1.	IT Environment and IT Organization	17
4.2.	IT Infrastructure	17
4.3.	IT Applications	19
4.4.	IT-Aided Business Processes.....	21
4.5.	Monitoring the IT Control System	22
4.6.	IT Outsourcing	23